Overnight Storms Claim One Life, Injuries Others

Clanton—The Alabama Emergency Management Agency has received confirmation from the Tallapoosa Coroner's Office that their county suffered one fatality in the Eagle Creek community as a result of the overnight storms that moved through the state. Alabama has a total of 11 injuries to include two injuries in Tallapoosa County. There are 17 counties reporting moderate to major damage in the state. Chilton and Tallapoosa are some of the hardest hit areas from the overnight storms. Today local officials will do initial damage assessments in those impacted areas.
